THERE'S A JEWEL IN YOU

FROM A STATISTIC TO A SUCCESS

This anthology is a compilation of enthralling women who are sharing their evocative stories of experiencing motherhood for the very first time. From homelessness, rape, abuse and looking for love in all the wrong places, these women were determined not to allow their circumstances to determine their destinies. They defied the odds against them and went from a statistic to a SUCCESS! The imagery will propel you to feel, believe and declare, "I AM STILL SOMEBODY!" There's A Jewel In You was written to encourage, empower and equip young mothers for greater. It takes a JEWEL to see a JEWEL and that's what we see in you.

"Your present circumstances NEVER determine your destiny. Keep pressing forward!"

©2017 THERE'S A JEWEL IN YOU: 100 AFFIRMATIONS FOR YOUNG MOTHERS

Giving Up Is Never An Option

A MESSAGE FROM THE CEO/FOUNDER

I Am Still Somebody™ is the teen mom mentoring program that we are building to help Encourage, Empower and Equip Teen Mothers to be Greater Women and Greater Mothers. We will be teaching them the life skills necessary to be successful in life while making sure they understand the importance of completing their education. While we are still working on our 501(c)(3), we are offering products like this anthology to remind them that giving up is never an option.

As a former teen mom myself at the age of 15, I remember what that journey feels and looks like. Even though these young ladies are not in the best of circumstances, they also need to be told that it's not their end destiny. As a college graduate and business owner, I stand along with our authors as evidence that GREATER is in their future if they put in the work. This book will help transform their lives while yielding a voice of caution to other young girls. Thank you for taking the time to read about our story and I look forward to following up with you real soon.

What People Are Saying?

Gives inspiration and motivation

by Alexis B., Teen Mother

The content of the book is very powerful. I love the use of figurative language, it really made images pop in my head. I was able to place myself in the situation that was being spoken on in the different chapters. Also, not only did I understand the message the women were sending, I felt the message. I think that this book will definitely give an impact on a teen mother's life as it did for me. I personally as a teen mother have more confidence with sharing my story and a drive to share it with other teens. I want to let them know that there are so many people in this world that have had unplanned lives with children at young ages and still overcame obstacles doing what others deem "impossible". Overall, the book gives great feedback and rich history in a reasonable length to read. It gives inspiration and motivation for us as teens to look up to. Thanks for all the stories that were shared, I enjoyed reading them all and learning about the authors in just a few pages.

Great book of encouragement

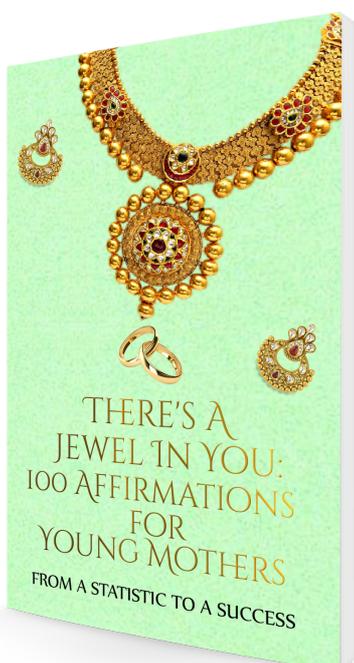

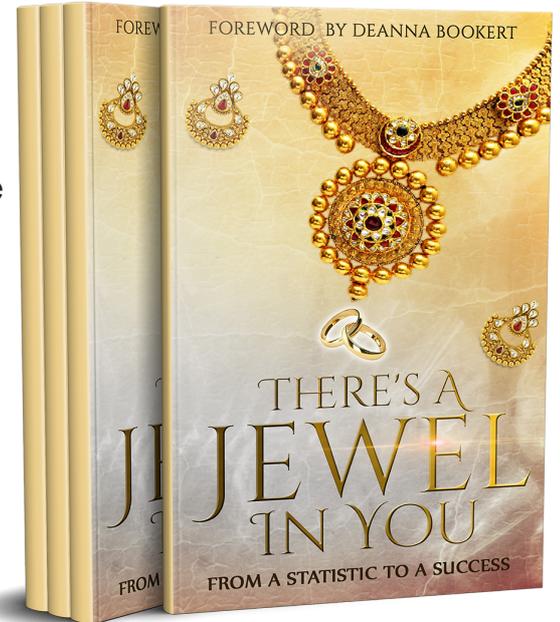

by Lauren A. Cole, Her Future Empowerment Founder

"There's A Jewel In You: 100 Affirmations for Young Mothers is a great book of encouragement for young mothers. In a time when this population is often overlooked, it's great to have a work like this to offer support and encouragement."

Greater Working Women Books

Greater Working Women debuts their publishing with There's A Jewel In You Collection. This is the first of three volumes to be produced in this collection. All future titles will be announced at www.greaterwomen.com.

This anthology is a compilation of enthralling women who are sharing their evocative stories of experiencing motherhood for the very first time. From homelessness, rape, abuse and looking for love in all the wrong places, these women were determined not to allow their circumstances to determine their destinies. They defied the odds against them and went from a statistic to a SUCCESS! The imagery will propel you to feel, believe and declare, "I AM STILL SOMEBODY!" There's A Jewel In You was written to encourage, empower and equip young mothers for greater. It takes a JEWEL to see a JEWEL and that's what we see in you.

This affirmation book is a companion to There's A Jewel In You. This book will transform the way you think and speak. It will help navigate you out of the negative statistics and perceptions of your life as a young mother. It is imperative that young mothers learn early in their roles as a mother that the power is in your words and in your thoughts. Read these affirmations out loud and write them on your bathroom mirror. Keep these positive truths before you at all times so that you can be reminded that GREATER is always in your present and your future. Everyday tell yourself, "I Am Still Somebody!"
